As per the reference cited above, National Handloom Day, Commemorated every year on August 7th, marks the Swadeshi Movement launched in 1905. It celebrates the skilled artisans, and craftsmen dedicated to weaving intricate fabrics that are source of pride for our nation. This aims to raise awareness about Handloom Industry's importance, support local weavers, and inspire younger generations to embrace our traditional textiles.

In the light of above, all the Principals of Government/Private Aided Colleges are requested to celebrate National Handloom Day on 7th August 2023 to raise awareness about its significance and also instil a sense of pride in our culture heritage among the students so that students can support the Handloom Industry and contribute to its growth in future. With the following instructions execute the event successfully

1. Handloom Attire Day: Encourage students and staff to wear handloom outfits on August 7th, demonstrating our appreciation for the artistry and craftsmanship of Handloom weavers.
2. Essay and Elocution Competitions: Organise essay and elocution competitions on the theme of "Celebrating Indian Handlooms: Weaving Our Culture Heritage" This will provide a platform for students to express their thoughts on the importance of preserving our handloom traditions.
3. Fashion Show: A show can be conducted showcasing various handloom garments to foster an outstanding of the diversity and beauty of our indigenous textiles. This event can be a captivating way to engage students and promote the use of Handlooms.

Encourage all the students and staff to celebrate National Handloom Day on 7th August with enthusiasm and dedication.
